Worship the sun-god, the ruler of the worlds, who is crowned with rays, who appears at the horizon, who is greeted by gods and demons, and brings light. 7. Indeed he is the embodiment of all gods and full of glory and creates and sustains the gods and the demons as well as their worlds by his rays. 8, 9, 10. Indeed he is the same as Brahma as well as Vishnu, Lord Shiva, Skanda, Prajapati, the mighty Indra, Kubera, Kala, Yama, Soma, Varuna, the Pitris, the Vasus, the Sadyhas, the Ashwins, the Maruts, Manu, Vayu, and the god of Fire. He constitutes created beings, he is the life-breath, the source of the seasons, the store-house of light, an offspring of Aditi, the progenitor, the sun-god, the coursier in the heavens, the nourisher, the possessor of rays, the golden, the brilliant, the one whose energy constitutes the seed of the universe and the maker of day. 11, 12, 13, 14, 15. He has seven green horses, is myriad-rayed, full of rays, the destroyer of darkness, the source of happiness, the mitigator of suffering of his devotees, the infuser of life in the lifeless cosmic egg, all pervading and the cause of the creation, preservation and destruction of the universe. He is blissful by nature, the ruler of all, the bringer of day and the Teacher. A son of Aditi, he bears the fire of dissolution in his womb, is bliss personified and all-enveloping, the destroyer of cold, the lord of the heavens, the disperser of darkness, a master of the three Vedas, the sender of thick showers and the friend of water. He courses swiftly along his own orbit, carries in him the resolve to evolve the universe and is adorned with a circle of rays. He is death, tawny and the destroyer of all. His is omniscient, all-formed, endowed with extraordinary brilliance, coppery, the source of all evolutions, the controller of lunar mansions, planets and stars, the creator of all, the respondent among the splendid. O god appearing in twelve forms, hail to you!
